This top-level gear includes Awakening weapons like a series of dandelions or Bhega gloves that enhance accuracy. If a player can complete the final set of assists, this player can benefit from a significant increase to ap or DP. The Awakening Gun Dandelion has the highest AP among all other weapons, and Nouver is a secondary weapon praised by players for its AP-oriented statistics. Kutum, one of the other secondary weapons, is also the boss's weapon, and it increases the DP, so you can choose whatever you want to equip. Kzarki's main weapon has a low chance of falling from Kzarka, the world boss found at the huge altar located in the deepest part of the sanctuary of Serendia. Dandelion, has a low chance of being received from Karanda, the world boss found at Calpheon Karanda Ridge. This is because they have an increased accuracy effect. Muskan shoes have the effect of increasing evasion. From the famous Dim Tree Spirit's Armor and Red Nose's Armor, Dim Tree Spirit's Armor is more popular with its enhanced max HP effect. The same applies to the helmet, since the Giata helmet is more favored, due to its increased maximum HP effect, over the Griffon helmet, which was recently added to the game. The composition differs between players depending on their style of play and the amount of silver they possess. Liverto is the most commonly used weapon for its fairly high AP and its stats are usually compared to Kzarka. The highly improved Liverto can be used to the point where you switch to Kzarka. DUO or TRI Liverto is commonly used before Kzarka, but it costs a lot of silver to get. Players who can't afford Liverto use Rosar, which can provide different effects with two outlets, or Yuria, which offers additional human damage as a replacement. Some players use Kalis for its increased accuracy, even if the item has no additional statistics. They are usually upgraded to TRI. ▲ Liverto Longsword has high performance, but quite expensive players usually use the green weapon Awakening, which is amplified to the level of TRI. The cost is not that high and they are not so hard to get. On the other hand, the price of TRI blue Awakening weapons is 2 times higher, and the number of items on the market is scarce, so it is extremely difficult to get it. If you're at the expense of financial capabilities, it's a good idea to buy accessories with high AP. Mark shades are good when it comes to rings, and Red Coral Earrings is cost effective. They can be used for quite some time if they are upgraded to THE DUO level.
